School Meals

Only £1.80 per day!

All children up to Year 2 receive a free, government paid, school meal.

Please report any absence asap. If your child is unfortunate to get a sickness and diarrhoea bug please keep them tucked up for 48 hours

Remember,
Once a week
Take a peek

Thank you...

...to all the children for coming into the academy so sensibly this week when the weather has been bad and the routines have had to change.

Information and Reminders

Times Tables Rock Stars

Times Tables Rock Stars is an online interactive programme, where pupils can learn their timetables. Logins will be given out within the next week.

Breakfast club

Breakfast club spaces available, £1.50 per morning. If you would like your child to attend breakfast club from 8.00am, please speak to the office.

Design and Performance Master Class

Over the next couple of weeks (Wednesday 24 January and Wednesday 31 January) Year 6 will be attending TAH for a Design and Performance Master Class afternoon, a letter will follow.

School Shoes

Please remember to send your child with school shoes to change into when the weather is wet and they are walking to school in boots.

School Council

Anti—Bullying

This half term the School Council will be involved in some very important work. They have already spoken to their classes about agreeing what we as an academy can do to help prevent bullying. The School Council will be using these ideas to create an Akroydon Promise, our Anti-Bullying Pledge.

Break time equipment

The School Council will also work together to provide each class with some equipment that they can use at break time. Each class will be responsible for the maintenance and care of this equipment.
